Our File No.: 019896-0229

Dear Mr. Benson:

I am writing in response to your email of October 3, 2006 regarding the inadvertent production of documents by your office. Your email to me stated the bates range at issue is SEC 004428 – SEC 008066. Our office received 3 boxes of documents from your office. Blue slip sheets were used to distinguish the composition of each of the documents. In attempting to segregate the documents you identified, we have found that SEC 008066 stops in the middle of a document composition made by your office. Consequently, I am returning to you the bates range SEC 004428 – SEC 008142.

Sincerely,

ROBINS, KAPLAN, MILLER & CIRESI L.L.P.

Hi Robert,

I have directed our paralegal to return and/or destroy any versions of the documents bearing the following bates ranges:

SEC 000995-001001
SEC 001008-001022
SEC 001023-001037

Next Tuesday at 9 Pacific/11 Central is fine for our call. I will plan to call you.

Subject: Privileged docs

Denise,

Following-up on our call from this morning, you are correct, the pages you referenced do contain privileged work product. Please return those pages to us and otherwise follow the procedures outlined in paragraph 19.1 of the protective order.

We are looking over this particular range of prior art, and will be redacting handwritten notations from other pages as well. We will send you, within the next few days, redacted versions of the same pages, to substitute for the pages produced.

As for the conference call, could we do 9 a.m. California time, next Tuesday, 10/31?

Thanks for your professional courtesy in these matters.

Best regards,
Robert

Dist. Del. C.A. No. 04-1338-KAJ

Dear Matt:

I write in response to an e-mail we received this afternoon from your paralegal, Michael Burnett, regarding three CDs bearing bates ranges HIT0279562-HIT0312194 that were inadvertently produced to Honeywell on November 3, 2006.

These CDs contain documents that are subject to third-party confidentiality restrictions. We are presently consulting with the relevant third-parties to obtain clearance to produce these documents. Accordingly, please return the referenced CDs and confirm destruction of all copies (including any paper copies generated and any related data maintained electronically).

Very truly yours,

Hello Jun,

I refer you to your letter of 3 November 2006, in regard to the latest production of Hitachi documents. In your letter, you mention you were producing three CDs bearing the bates range HIT 0279562 to HIT 0289820. I have been informed by our Litigation Case Support Department that that bates range pertains to only the first CD (CD Volume 23).

The second and third CDs bear the bates ranges of HIT 0289821 - HIT 0304568 (CD Volume 24), and HIT 0304569 - HIT 0312194 (CD Volume 25) respectively.

In order to avoid any confusion in the future concerning this production, it would be appreciated, if you would provide me with a revised letter indicating the correct and complete bates ranges for the documents Hitachi produced to Honeywell on the 3rd of November 2006.

Please call me should you have any questions.

Regards,

Michael
